Report Facts:

On or about January 26, 2016 the Inspection Division received an anonymous complaint call about the establishment located at 34 S. Eutaw Street. The complainant alleged that on weekends this establishment stays open after 2:00am. On January 30, 2016 after conducting a special investigation at 407 E. Saratoga Street Inspector Chrissomallis and Acting Assistant Chief Inspector Fosler proceeded to 34 S. Eutaw Street. We arrived at approximately 1:25am and parked on the southeast corner of S. Eutaw Street. From that location we observed the Jano Ethiopian Restaurant. The front entrance has a lighted "open" sign on the door. We observed individuals entering and leaving the restaurant until 2:10am. The open sign remained lighted and individuals continued to enter location. Inspector Chrissomallis and I entered the establishment and proceeded up the stairs to the 2nd floor. We that music was still playing, 18 to 20 patrons were in the restaurant, and at least 4 patrons were in possession of alcohol. We identified ourselves and I asked to speak to the manager. Mr. Worku, approached me and said he was the owner. He pointed out the liquor license and other documents. Inspector Chrissomallis took photographs while I conducted an inspection. We explained to the licensee and his wife that they were in violation of operating after hours and that it would be necessary to schedule a hearing. Mr. Worku was very upset but signed the inspectors report and we departed at approximately 2:45am without incident.
