Violation of Rule 4.05(a) – Prohibited Hours – February 17, 2023 – On February 17, 2023, at approximately 2:13am, Board of Liquor License Commissioners (BLLC) Chief Inspector John Chrissomallis was notified by a patrolmen in the sector of the City where the establishment is located that a 911 call had been received by BPD for the establishment, and could Chief Chrissomallis respond to the location with the officer. Chief Chrissomallis and the officer arrived at the establishment at approximately 2:20am, and could hear music and people inside the establishment. The front door and the side door were both locked. Chief Chrissomallis and the BPD officer knocked loudly and identified themselves as BPD and BLLC. Chief Chrissomallis heard the music shut off and could hear bottles being thrown in the trash and he could also hear what sounded like individuals running up a staircase. Approximately 5 minutes after they commenced knocking on the door, the door opened. Chief Chrissomallis and the BPD officer entered the establishment and observed several beers on the bar and approximately 10 males and 2 females inside, one being Mrs. Maria Elena Menjuvar Rivera, identified by her passport, who stated that she was the manager. Chief Chrissomallis inquired as to why the establishment was opened well after 2am, when the license only goes until 1am, and did not receive a response. Chief Chrissomallis and the BPD officer then called in a BPD translator over the telephone, and Chief Chrissomallis asked that the manager get the people who ran upstairs so that he could ensure they exit the building, and he was responded by the manager that there was no one upstairs. Chief Chrissomallis determined that his goal was to insure that everyone needed to safely exit the establishment, he told Mrs. Menjuvar Rivera that he would be issueing her a violation for operating after hours, but that he would only give her a warning for cooperation for not opening the door and a warning for false statement for lying about the individuals upstairs and a warning for locked doors if she agreed to go get the individuals from the upper level and have them exit. The manager agreed and went upstairs. Approximately 10 females came downstairs and exited the establishment. When BPD and BLLC then left the location, there was only the manger and 2 employees left inside. Chief Chrissomallis exited without further incident.

Violation Reporting Facts:

On Feb 17, 2023 at approximately 0213 hrs. a 911 call was received to BPD for Amigos Bar located at 400 South Eaton Street operating after hours. The patrolman in that sector asked for a Liquor Board representative to respond to the location with him. I arrived at approx. 0220. Myself and the officer could hear music and people inside the location. The front door and the side door of the establishment were both locked. We knocked loudly on the doors identifying ourselves as BPD and BLLC. The music was shut off and we could hear bottles being thrown in the trash. We could also hear individuals running up steps. Approx. 5 min after we began knocking the door opened. Once we entered the establishment we observed several beers on the bar and approx. 10 males and 2 females one being Mrs. Maria Elena Menjuvar Rivera identified by a Republic of El Salvador Passport who stated that she was the manager. I asked the manger why she was opened well after 2am when she has a 1am license with no response. We were able to use a BPD translator over the phone. I asked the manager to get the people that ran upstairs so that they can exit the building and she stated there wasn't anyone upstairs. Realizing that my main goal was to leave the establishment and everyone have exited safely I told the manager that she will be recieving a violation for operating after hours however I would issue her a warning for cooperation for not opening the door a waring for false statement for lying about individuals being upstairs and a warning for the locked doors if she agreed to go get the individuals from the upper level and have them exit. The manager agreed and went upstairs. Approx. 10 females came downstairs and exited the establishment. When BPD and BLLC left the location there was only the manager and 2 employees inside. We left the location without any further incident.
