Violation of Rule 4.06 Alcoholic Beverage Containers – May 6, 2021 – On May 6, 2021 at approximately 3:50pm, the Comptroller of Maryland, Field Enforcement Division (FED) conducted a Routine Liquor Dealer Inspection at the establishment. FED Inspector Kevin Burley and Inspector Alan Southworth identified themselves to the manager, Nicholas Laporta, and explained the purpose of their visit. FED Inspectors requested the alcoholic beverage invoices for the current inventory at the restaurant. Mr. Laporta supplied FED Inspectors with invoices from several alcoholic beverage wholesalers. Inspector Burley began inspection of a storage area located on the 2nd floor where he observed a steel cage storage rack containing 1 (one) 1.75L bottle of Grey Goose vodka with other miscellaneous alcoholic beverages. Inspector Burley asked Mr. Laporta why this 1.75L bottle of Grey Goose vodka was in the cage since all the other vodka bottles in the restaurant were 750ml. Mr. Laporta explained that when he attempted to purchase 750ml bottles from the wholesaler, he was told they were not available. Mr. Laporta stated that he purchased the 1.75ml bottle and attempted to use it at the bar. However, he discovered the bottle was too big and awkward to handle, so he decided to pour the contents into the 750ml bottle instead, for better handling. At this time, Inspector Burley apprised Mr. Laporta that it is a violation of § 6-313(a)(1)-(2) of the Alcoholic Beverages Article of the Code of Maryland to illegally tamper with and refill alcoholic beverage containers and that the alcohol in question was considered contraband and would be seized. Inspector Burley notified Mr. Laporta of the rights pertaining to contesting the seizure of alcoholic beverages from the establishment and added that this case would now be forwarded to the Board of Liquor License Commissioners for Baltimore City (BLLC) for review and disposition. Inspector Burley then prepared and completed an Alcohol Inspection form and had Mr. Laporta sign the documents. Inspector Burley took the seized property to the evidence room of the FED. The total value of the alcoholic beverage confiscated was $26.99.

Narrative

On Thursday, May 6, 2021, at approximately 3:50 PM, I, Kevin Burley and Inspector Alan Southworth from the Comptroller of Maryland, Field Enforcement Division, conducted a Routine Liquor Dealer Inspection at Orto Management LLC T/A Orto, located at 1709 North Charles Street, Baltimore City, Maryland 21201. This location currently holds a 2020 Trader's License (30682108) issued by the Baltimore City Clerk of the Circuit Court and a valid 2020 Alcoholic Beverage License (LB 228) issued to Licensee Elan Kotz by the Board of Liquor License Commissioners for Baltimore City.

Upon entering the establishment, we identified ourselves to manager, Nicholas Laporta and explained the purpose of our visit. I asked to see the alcoholic beverage invoices for the current alcoholic beverage inventory within the restaurant. Mr. Laporta supplied me with invoices from several alcoholic beverage wholesalers. At this time, I began inspection of the storage area located on the 2nd floor. I observed a steel cage storage rack containing 1 (one) 1.75L bottle of Grey Goose vodka with other miscellaneous alcoholic beverages. I asked Mr. Laporta why this bottle 1.75L bottle of Grey Goose vodka was in the cage since all the the other vodka bottles in the restaurant were 750ml. He explained when he attempted to purchase 750ml bottles from the wholesaler he was told they were not available. Mr. Laporta stated he purchased the 1.75L bottle and tried using it at the bar. However, he discovered the bottle was too big and awkward to handle, so he decided to pour the contents into the 750ml bottle instead, better handling. At this time, I apprised Mr. Laporta it is a violation to illegally tamper with and refill alcoholic beverage containers and the alcohol in question was considered contraband and would be seized.

I made clear to Mr. Laporta of the rights pertaining to contesting the seizure of alcoholic beverages from the establishment and added that this case would now be forwarded to the Baltimore City Board of Liquor License Commissioners for their review and disposition.

I prepared a Notice of Seizure Receipt for Confiscation form and inventoried the alcohol being seized from the premises. I completed the Alcohol Inspection form and had Mr. Laporta sign the documents.

We departed the location at 4:45 pm. The seized property was later transported by Kevin Burley to the evidence room of the Comptroller of Maryland, Field Enforcement Division, in Annapolis, Maryland. Violation of Rule 3.12 General Welfare – May 3, 2021 – On May 3, 2021 at approximately 10:44pm, Board of Liquor License Commissioners (BLLC) Inspectors Tudhope and Jordan received a 311 complaint (complaint #21-00329198) for the establishment. The complaint was for live music after 10:00pm on a weeknight for two consecutive weeks. Inspectors Tudhope and Jordan arrived at the establishment at approximately 11:15pm to conduct an investigation. Upon arrival, Inspectors could hear music at an extremely loud volume while standing outside the establishment. Inspector Tudhope noticed people exiting the establishment through an alleyway on the St. Paul Street side of the building. Upon further investigation, Inspectors Tudhope and Jordan discovered the back patio area belonging to the establishment was open and had live jazz music playing. Inspectors located the owner, Mr. Terence Dickson, and discussed the volume of the music with him. Mr. Dickson stated that the volume was louder than usual because it was the band's last song, and that the last song is usually louder and longer for jazz bands, and that their set was about to conclude. Inspectors asked Mr. Dickson to produce his license, which Mr. Dickson indicated that he was unable to do, as he did not know where his license was upstairs. Inspectors Jordan and Tudhope instructed Mr. Dickson to contact the BLLC the next day, and to send his license through to the office. Inspectors Tudhope and Jordan informed Mr. Dickson that the licensee would be receiving a violation for the loud music volume that evening. Inspectors left the establishment thereafter without any further incident. Upon subsequent review the following day, it was determined that while the licensee does have live entertainment, it only allows for live entertainment on the second floor of the establishment and not for the outside patio, where the live jazz band was performing the evening before.

Violation of Rule 4.16 Illegal Conduct – May 3, 2021 – On May 3, 2021 at approximately 10:44pm, Board of Liquor License Commissioners (BLLC) Inspectors Tudhope and Jordan received a 311 complaint (complaint #21-00329198) for the establishment. Violation Reporting Facts:

On 05/03/21 at 10:44PM, Inspectors Tudhope and Inspector Jordan responded to a 311 complaint (complaint #21-00329198) for Terra's Cafe, located at 101 E. 25th St. The complaint was for live music after 10 PM on a weeknight for two consecutive weeks. I, Inspector Tudhope, and Inspector Jordan, arrived at the establishment at approx. 11:15PM and could hear music at an extremely loud volume from outside. I, Inspector Tudhope, noticed people leaving through an alleyway on the side of the building, located on St. Paul St. Upon further investigation, Inspectors Tudhope and Jordan found that the back patio area belonging to Terra's Cafe was open and had a live band playing outside. Inspectors Tudhope and Jordan made contact with the owner, Mr Terence Dickson about the volume of the music. The owner stated that the volume was louder than usual because it was the last song, and that the last song is usually louder and longer for jazz bands, and they were about to end. Inspectors Tudhope and Jordan asked Mr. Dickson for his license to verify that he was allowed live entertainment. Mr. Dickson was unable to provide any license to the inspectors. He stated that he did not know where they were upstairs. Inspectors Tudhope and Jordan instructed Mr. Dickson to contact us the next day and send licensing through to the office. I, Inspector Tudhope, and Inspector Jordan informed licensee that he was receiving a violation for his music volume that night. Inspectors left establishment without any further incidents. After further review the next day, it was established that Mr. Dickson had a live entertainment license but it only extended to the second floor of the establishment and not outside.
