Violation of Rule 4.18(a) – Alterations – September 21, 2023 – On September 21, 2023, Inspector Cindy Tudhope was on duty at approximately 5:24pm when 311 Complaint #23-00739543 was received alleging the establishment had illegally constructed a separate packaged goods area inside the bar and that alterations were done without Board approval. Inspector Tudhope advised the complainant that she would follow up the next day after she had reviewed the establishment's file. On September 21, 2023, Inspector Tudhope made a copy of the floor plan submitted to the Board on the most recent transfer application heard by the Board and approved on March 25, 2021, and confirmed that no subsequent approval had been granted by the Board to conduct renovations. Inspector Tudhope also researched the Inspections database and made note that Agent Terri Chase made a note in her inspection dated February 23, 2023 that the establishment had been cleaned out and that she believed construction may be taking place. Inspectors Tudhope and Jordan then visited the establishment at approximately 5:36pm on September 21, 2023. Upon arrival, Inspector Tudhope made contact with an unidentified Male Employee and asked to speak to the owner and the person in charge. The male employee—who was at the time of the visit the person selling liquor to customers—stated that he did not work there, and that he would get the manager. A second individual then arrived out of the rear of the establishment and at this time, Inspector Tudhope asked him if he was the manager, at which point he stated that he also did not work there and had only been there for 5 days and was just helping out. Neither individual would provide inspectors with their names, and stated repeatedly that they did not work there, but were just helping out. Inspector Tudhope then asked for the establishment's employee records, and asked the unidentified individuals to get the owner on the phone. Inspector Tudhope then made phone contact with a Mr. Uprety, who identified himself as the owner and the person running the establishment, and then stated that the individual who handed Inspector Tudhope the phone was the manager of the establishment. Hearing this information over the phone, the unidentified individual shook his head in the universal fashion for "No" and the individual repeated that he was not the manager and was just helping out. Inspector Tudhope then informed Mr. Uprety of the 311 complaint, and noted that the floor plan approved by the Liquor Board did not match what she was observing. Mr. Uprety stated that he did not do any renovations, but that is how he purchased the establishment. Inspector Tudhope informed Mr. Uprety that he would be receiving a violation for the alterations without Board approval and for failing to provide Inspector Tudhope with employee records upon request. One of the employees, a Mr. Kivan Pun did agree to provide his information and sign receipt of Inspector Tudhope's inspection sheet. Inspectors then left the establishment without further incident.

Violation of Rule 4.05(b) – Prohibited Hours – September 18, 2023 – On September 18, 2023, Chief Inspector John Chrissomallis as on duty and, along with two (2) Baltimore Police Department (BPD) officers, was monitoring the closings of the bars on what is known as "The Block." Chief Chrissomallis and the BPD officers walked the entire footprint to ensure that all establishments were closed. Upon arriving at the establishment, they could hear loud music coming from inside. Chief Chrissomallis knocked on the door and was granted access by a security guard. Once inside, Chief Chrissomallis observed bartenders serving customers alcohol and several dancers performing on the stage and on the floor. There was a large group on the side of the establishment drinking and tipping the dancers that were performing. Chief Chrissomallis asked security for the manager and asked him to instruct the DJ to stop the music and to start telling customers to exit the premises. At that time, a white male individual, tall and thin, approached Chief Chrissomallis and identified himself as the manager. Due to his youthful look and the possibility that he was underage, Chief Chrissomallis asked for his ID. At that time, another individual, a white male who was shorter than the first individual approached Chief Chrissomallis and identified himself as the owner. Again, suspecting that the second individual may be underage, Chief Chrissomallis asked to see his ID. Both individuals were over the age of 18 but under the age of 21. Chief Chrissomallis explained to the individual who identified himself as the owner (later identified as a Mr. Tristan Ireland) that the establishment must be closed by 2:00am and that all customers must have exited the establishment by that time. While speaking to Mr. Ireland, Chief Chrissomallis identified several customers exiting the premises while carrying open containers of alcohol as they passed security guards. Chief Chrissomallis made Mr. Ireland aware that he would be issuing a violation for operating after hours, and would be giving him a warning for the open containers issue. Chief Chrissomallis explained to Mr. Ireland that it appeared to him that he was not in operational control of the establishment and that he should address these issues immediately if he wanted to continue to operate a liquor and adult entertainment business in the City of Baltimore. All parties were cooperative and Chief Chrissomallis and BPD officers exited without any further incident.

Violation Reporting Facts

On September 18, 2023, at approx. 0220 hrs., while on duty monitoring the closings of the bars on what is known as the "Block" myself and 2 officers walked the whole block to ensure that establishments were closed. Once we arrived at Norma Jeans located at 10 Custom House, we heard loud music coming from the location. I knocked on the door and a security guard let us in. Once inside I observed bartenders serving customers alcohol and several dancers performing on the stage and on the floor. There was a large group on the side of the establishment drinking and tipping the dancers that were performing. I asked security for the manager and asked him to instruct the DJ to stop the music and to start telling customers to exit the location. At that time a white male tall and thin approached me and told me he was the manager. Due to him looking possibly underage I asked for his Id. At that time a white male shorter approached me and told me that he was the owner. Again, suspecting that the 2nd individual was also underage I asked to see his ID. Both individuals were over the age of 18 however under the age of 21. I explained to the individual that identified himself as the owner (later identified as Mr. Tristan Ireland) that the establishment must be closed by 0200 and all customers must have exited at that time. While speaking to him I observed several customers leaving with open containers walking by security. I pointed this out to him, and he addressed the issue with security. I made Mr. Ireland aware that I would be writing a violation for operating after hours and issuing a warning for the open containers. I explained to him that to me it looked like he did not have operational control of the establishment and that he should address these issues immediately if he wanted to continue to operate a liquor and adult entertainment business in the City of Baltimore. All parties were cooperative, and we left the location without any further incident.

02/14/2023	On Saturday 2/11/2023, licensee Lisa Ireland surrendered both of her valid Class BD7 BWL License & Class AE License to the custody of the BLLC Chief Inspector Chrissomallis, as she indicated she was in an alleged dispute with a tenant who took unlawful possession of her premises, and did not believe she would be in operational control of the premises, as per the requirements of BLLC Rule 3.01 and Adult Entertainment Rule 3.06. As such, no alcoholic beverages may be sold, consumed, or displayed on the premises, nor may any Adult Entertainment be permitted on premises until the respective licenses are returned. Additionally, BPD shut the establishment down for attempting to operate without valid licenses in the presence of BLLC Chief Inspector Chrissomallis this same night, some time before midnight. Violation of Rule 4.05(b) – Prohibited Hours – September 15, 2023 – On September 14, 2023, Chief Inspector John Chrissomallis as on duty at approximately 11:15pm when he received an anonymous complaint that the establishment would be having an after hours event. The complainant was very specific in the details of the party and mentioned that the establishment would be allowing patrons to enter through the rear which as access from the parking lot on Custom House Avenue. Being familiar with "The Block", Chief Chrissomallis had knowledge that several clubs have back exits that lead out to a roof and through a metal door onto the parking lot on Custom House Avenue. Chief Chrissomallis notified Baltimore Police Department (BPD) Sergeant Pow, who was the supervisor on duty, of the anonymous tip to make him aware. Sergeant Pow agreed to have officers available on scene at 2:00am, so that a check could be conducted on the establishment. At approximately 2:00am on September 15, 2023, Chief Chrissomallis notified Detective Hazemihalis, who was working the cameras for the Central District, and asked him to position a camera to view the rear door of the establishment to see if there was any activity. At approximately 2:05am, Chief Chrissomallis received a call from Detective Hazemihalis who informed him that there was a security guard at the rear door who was allowing approximately 10 females to enter the establishment. At approximately 2:10am, Chief Chrissomallis met Sergeant Pow and a few of his officers and they made their way to the front door of the club, while 2 BPD officers positioned themselves at the rear door. Once at the front door, Chief Chrissomallis observed a security guard sitting on a stool directly inside the heavily tinted door. Chief Chrissomallis knocked on the door and the security guard opened it slightly. Chief Chrissomallis requested that the guard open the door as he wished to conduct a check on the premises. The guard asked Chief Chrissomallis to wait outside until he got the manager, and the Chief responded that no, they would not wait, and that he would enter and go find the manager himself. After a slight hesitation, the guard moved aside and allowed Chief Chrissomallis and BPD officers to enter. Once inside, Chief Chrissomallis observed approximately 40 customers and 10 dancers on the stage performing and walking around. The lights were low, a DJ was performing, and bartenders were serving customers alcoholic beverages at the bar. Chief Chrissomallis instructed the DJ to stop playing music and asked the security guards to start telling customers that the establishment was closed and they needed to exit. All parties complied with the Chief's requests. Chief Chrissomallis and a BPD officer went to the second floor which was clear of customers. Chief Chrissomallis observed approximately 15 dancers walking up the stairs to go to the dressing room. Thereafter, Chief Chrissomallis went back downstairs and the establishment was cleared of patrons and only employees were remaining. Chief Chrissomallis spoke with the licensee and informed her that the establishment must be closed by 2:00am and that under no circumstances could an after hours party take place. The licensee was cooperative during the investigation, and Chief Chrissomallis and all BPD officers left the establishment without further incident.

Chief Chrissomallis observed approximately 15 dancers walking up the stairs to go to the dressing room. Thereafter, Chief Chrissomallis went back downstairs and the establishment was cleared of patrons and only employees were remaining. Chief Chrissomallis spoke with the licensee and informed her that the establishment must be closed by 2:00am and that under no circumstances could an after hours party take place. The licensee was cooperative during the investigation, and Chief Chrissomallis and all BPD officers left the establishment without further incident.

Violation Reporting Facts

On 9/14/2023 at approx 23:15 while on duty I received an anonymous complaint that Oasis located at 417 East Baltimore Street would be having an afterhours event. The complainant was very specific in the details of the party and mentioned that they will be allowing people to enter through the rear which has access from the parking lot on custom house. Being familiar with the Block I had knowledge that several clubs have back exits that lead out to a roof and through a medal door on to the parking lot on Custom House. I notified Sgt. Pow, the supervisor on duty and made him aware. We determined that he would have units there at 02:00 so that we can do a check at the location to see if they were operating afterhours. At approx. 02:00 I notified Det. Hazemihalis who was working the cameras for the Central District and asked him to position camera at the back door to see if he saw activity. At approx. 02:05 the Det called me and stated that there was a security guard inside the door allowing approx. 10 females in the back door. At approx. 0210 I met Sgt Pow and a few of his officers and we made our way to the front door of the club while 2 officers went to the rear door. Once at the front door I observed a security guard sitting on a stool directly inside the heavily tinted door. I knocked and he opened the door slightly. I asked him to please open the door we were going to conduct a check on the premises. He asked me to wait there till he got the manager, and I replied no we will enter and locate the manager. After a slight hesitation he moved to the side, and we entered the location. Once inside we observed approximately 40 customers and 10 dancers on the stage performing and walking around. The lights were low, a DJ was performing, and bartenders were serving customers at the bar. I instructed the DJ to stop playing music and asked security to start telling customers that they were closed and to exit. All parties complied. A BPD officer and I went to the second floor which was clear of customers. There were approximately 15 dancers walking up the steps to go to the dressing room. After I went back downstairs the establishment was clear of customers with only employees remaining. I spoke with the licensee and explained to her that the establishment must be closed by 0200 and that under no circumstances after hour party could take place. She was cooperative during our investigation, and we left the location without any incident.

On 9/15/2023 this officer was notified by Chief Chrissomallis (Unit 9690) of the Liquor Board of a tip he received in reference to Oasis located at 417 E. Baltimore St. Per the tip, the business would close as normal, but would be opening their business through the back door so that they could have an after party with suspected gang members.

At approximately 0204hrs this officer along with Chief Chrissomallis and several Central District units responded to the location. Three officers responded to the back door, while the rest went to the front entrance. Upon knocking on the door to the business, the security guard acknowledged our presence but attempted to go into the bar area. Chief Chrissomallis ordered the security guard to unlock the door, which he reluctantly did. Upon gaining entry into the location the security guard attempted to block Chief Chrissomallis from going into the bar area as he tried to advise he would go get the owner. Chief Chrissomallis again ordered him out of the way.

Upon gaining access to the bar/strip area, there were approximately 40-50 individuals still inside with the music playing loudly, indicating the location was not closed at their designated time of 0200hrs. Orders were immediately given to shut the music off and for all patrons to leave the location. Chief Chrissomallis and P/O Rosenbloom went upstairs where they advised there were approximately 20-25 strippers in various stages of dress.

Based on the evidence that there were people gaining access into the club from the rear entrance as well as the club being visually observed to be operation after their designated time, Oasis was found to be in violation of their liquor board license.

All events were documented via police issued body worn cameras.
