Violation of Rule 3.12 General Welfare – January 22, 2020 – At approximately 8:13 PM, Baltimore City Police Det. Rico Perry responded to the location to conduct a routine business check at the establishment. Upon arrival, Det. Perry observed an individual, later identified as Mr. Rodney Thompson, standing in the doorway of the establishment. At that time, Det. Perry observed a phone in Mr. Thompson's right hand pressed against his body as he appeared to be clutching a large "L" shaped object inside of his jacket pocket. As Thompson took notice to the arrival of these detectives, he quickly turned around and went inside of the establishment. Due to Mr. Thompson's actions and based on Det. Perry's training and experience, Det. Perry believed Mr. Thompson was armed with a handgun and was attempting to discard it. Det. Perry exited his vehicle and entered the establishment following Thompson. Upon entering the establishment, Det. Perry heard the sound of a heavy metal object dropping on a wood surface emanating from the corner in which Mr. Thompson was seen going toward as Det. Perry entered the establishment. Mr. Thompson then reappeared from the corner no longer displaying the "L" shaped object in his jacket and began to walk past Det. Perry. Det. Perry then went to the corner where Mr. Thompson "had come from and where the heavy metal object was heard hitting the wood surface." Det. Perry then recovered a Cobra FS380 semi-automatic handgun loaded with six (6) .380 caliber rounds in the magazine and one (1) live .380 caliber round in the chamber. The handgun was rendered safe by Det. Perry and Mr. Thompson was arrested.
