I. Violations:

1. Thomas W. Hamrick and Yenys Carolina Silva, Carolina Tex-Mex Restaurant, LLC, T/a Carolina's Tex-Mex Restaurant, 500 S. Wolfe Street – Class "B" Beer, Wine & Liquor License – Violation of Rule 4.16 Illegal Conduct – October 6, 2020 – At approximately 10:30 PM, Baltimore City Liquor Board Inspector Walter Robinson and Inspector Cindy Tudhope responded to a 311 call for service (#20-00686651) regarding loud music emanating from the establishment. Upon arrival at the establishment, BLLC inspectors parked their cars and observed the location for 10 minutes. After 10 minutes, the inspectors exited their vehicles and entered the establishment. Upon approach, the Inspectors could hear unreasonably loud music emanating from the establishment. After entering the establishment, Inspectors went to the second floor and observed a "drag show" taking place. The BLLC inspectors informed the bartender of the noise complaint and checked the liquor license to determine if the establishment had the privilege of providing live entertainment attached to their license. Upon review of the establishment's license it was determined that the location was not authorized to provide live entertainment. BLLC inspectors then informed the bartender that a violation would be issued for the loud noise and provision of live entertainment without authorization. The bartender instructed the performers to end the show and the BLLC left the scene.
