Lombard Street – Class “BD7” Beer, Wine, & Liquor License – Violation of Rule 3.12 General Welfare – April 7, 2018 – At approximately 11:52 PM, BLLC Inspector Andy Perez responded to the establishment as a result of a 311 Complaint (#18-00257261) for alleged loud music emanating from the location. Upon arrival, Inspector Perez parked his vehicle across the street from the establishment. From this location, he was able to hear “excessively loud music” emanating from the establishment. In addition, Inspector Perez observed an individual urinating against the wall of the establishment approximately 10 feet from its door. Inspector Perez then informed the manager of the loud music and urinating patron. The General Manager, Ms. Blanca Pesquera, lowered the music, but informed the inspector that there was nothing she could do to stop her patrons from urinating in public.

Violation of Rule 3.12 General Welfare – April 8, 2018 – At approximately 12:25 AM, BLLC Inspector Andy Perez responded to the establishment to follow up on an earlier call for service – 311 Complaint (#18-00257261) – for loud music. At that time, Inspector Perez observed two patrons leave the establishment and urinate by the trash dumpster of the location. In addition, Inspector Perez noticed that the music volume could again, be heard across the street from where he was parked. At this time, Inspector Perez informed the General Manager, Ms. Blanca Pesquera, that violations would be issued.

Violation of Rule 3.12 General Welfare – April 20, 2018 – At approximately 11:12 PM, Chief Inspector Fosler was on the 3900 block of East Lombard Street conducting an inspection at a neighboring bar, when he heard loud music emanating from the establishment. Upon hearing the music, Chief Fosler and Agent Chrissomallis approached and entered the establishment and heard excessively loud music emanating from the establishment. Chief Fosler and Agent Chrissomallis warned the manager of the establishment to lower the music at that time. Fosler and Chrissomallis left the establishment and continued their investigation at the neighboring bar. Upon completing their investigation at the neighboring bar at approximately 11:50 PM, they exited the bar and heard loud music emanating from the establishment again. At that time, Chief Fosler instructed Agent Chrissomallis to issue a violation to the establishment.

6. Sara Coughlin, Lindy Promotions, Inc., T/a Lindy Promotions, 3645 Beach Drive Boulevard – Pub Tour License – Violation of Alc. Bev. Art. 12-1101.1(d)(2)(iii)2 – March 9, 2018 – Unit Block of East Cross Street – At approximately 12:28 PM, BLLC Chief Inspector Mark Fosler received an email from community representatives concerning the Federal Hill Irish Stroll scheduled for March 10, 2018. Specifically, the email alleged that Lindy Promotions, the promoter of a pub crawl "the Federal Hill Irish Stroll" was illegally promoting "One Star Country Club," located at 38 East Cross Street, as a participant of "the Federal Hill Irish Stroll." Upon receiving the complaint, Chief Inspector Fosler visited Lindypromotions.com and observed that "One Star County Club" was indeed listed as a participating establishment in the "Federal Hill Irish Stroll." Chief Fosler then reviewed the Department of Transportation (DOT) and BLLC permits to determine if "One Star Country Club" was listed as a participating establishment in the "the Federal Hill Irish Stroll." A review of the applicable permits indicated that "One Star Country Club" was not a participating establishment and that it should be stricken from promotion as such by Lindy Promotions. Chief Fosler then contacted Lindy Promotions and informed the licensee/promoter that the law did not allow them to promote "One Star Country Club" as a participating establishment because they were neither listed on the DOT nor BLLC permits.

Violation of Rule 3.12 General Welfare – March 10, 2018 – Unit Block of East Cross Street – At approximately 3:00 PM, BLLC Agent John Chrissomallis responded to the Unit Block of East Cross Street to monitor the operation of the pub crawl, "the Federal Hill Irish Stroll." Upon arriving at the location, Chrissomallis stood within the perimeter of the event – the Unit Block of East Cross Street had been closed on the east and west ends by bike racks. At that time, Agent Chrissomallis observed patrons, who he believed to be participants of the pub crawl, exit licensed establishments and enter the public streets within the barricaded area and consume alcoholic beverages. At this time, Agent Chrissomallis made contact with Sara Coughlin, the promoter of the pub crawl who was employed by Lindy Promotions, to inquire whether or not the Department of Transportation (DOT) or BLLC permits issued to Lindy Promotions allowed for the consumption of alcoholic beverages in the public street. Upon review of the permits, Agent Chrissomallis noted that no such authority had been granted to Lindy Promotions. Upon being informed of this, Ms. Coughlin stated that she did not know anything about "extension permits." At approximately 4:30 PM 2 bottles were thrown on the Unit Block of East Cross Street while individuals were walking within the footprint of "the Federal Hill Irish Stroll." Due to the concerns for public safety, Agent Chrissomallis instructed all of the licensed establishments to prohibit patrons from talking their alcoholic beverages outside of the establishment.
